

Michael Fugler and Michael Scilia to Create National Syndicate Platform

Perdido Key, FL /prbuzz/ January 7, 2011 -- Michael Fugler and Michael "Mikie" Scilia of ASG Securities are creating a National Syndicate Platform with the cooperation of The Financial Services Exchange (FSX).

Mr. Fugler stated, "Mikie and I feel the micro-cap market (Entrepreneurial Small Business) needs to be embraced and recognized as a treasured national asset. Entrepreneurs are proven innovators of new products and services, and consequently, generators of new jobs. Most countries in the world have discovered it is impossible for an economy to grow or recover until an effective means for raising and allocating capital to entrepreneurs is developed."

Fugler further stated, "We have plans to accomplish this by using our industry contacts and relationships to reach out to the many existing organizations in the capital formation process and invite them to join our newly developed syndicate. Part of the process will be network building, capital market events that will benefit investors, issuers, regulators, market service providers and related organizations and entities. As a result we hope to be the catalyst to create new resources for capital allocation solutions and provide the support for its participants."

Judy Ensweller stated, "FSX is delighted to provide the platform to establish this initiative and continue our dedication to excellence."
