Michael Fugler who interviewed Rick Chess of the Chess Law Firm for Birtcher Anderson Chess at the REISA Spring Symposium stated, "When Rick started years ago, he focused on commercial real estate which is what he has done for 30 years. Then he focused on capital formation and for 2014 he has morphed his focus to business development for those in professions - lawyers, accountants, brokers, bankers, doctors, and dentists. I have had the chance to work with Rick in the past and he is always ready to try new things and usually succeeds at whatever he undertakes."

Mr. Chess stated, "In 2014 I'll be adding information on my newsletter on how to raise capital, for your business and/or charity, and how to protect your success; also including information on achieving wellness in your life."

Continuing, Mr. Chess stated, "Michael is one of the most creative people I know. A few years ago when I was President of REISA and we needed new thinking and new creativity to build membership and attendance at our conferences, I called on Michael and he delivered. He has extraordinary skills with interviewing, thinking on his feet, he is very perceptive and I believe he is on his way to new adventures in television and the media. People trust him and feel comfortable with him, that is why I think people are lining up to do interviews with him."
