

Michael Fugler Re-Appointed as FSEA State Vice Chairman, Publicity and Public Relations Committee

Perdido Key, Florida / PRBuzz / May 18, 2011 - - Michael Fugler, State Vice Chairman of Publicity and Public Relations for the Florida State Elks Association, was reappointed as State Vice Chairman for the 2011/2012 year.

Michael Fugler stated, "The Florida State Elks Association is becoming more and more proactive about inviting people from our community to share knowledge, education and information on good Life and good Living as well as paying it forward and giving back. The FSEA is becoming the "local solution" and I am proud to use Publicity and Public Relations to spread the good news."

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Mission statement: To inculcate the principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity; to recognize a belief in God; to promote the welfare and enhance the happiness of its Members; to quicken the spirit of American patriotism; to cultivate good fellowship; to perpetuate itself as a fraternal organization, and to provide for its government, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America will serve the people and communities through benevolent programs, demonstrating that Elks Care and Elks Share.

The Elks National Foundation, established in 1928, has distributed over $3 billion in cash, goods and services to the nations youth, its veterans, the disadvantaged and handicapped and in support of patriotic and civic programs. The Elks National Foundation mission is "helping Elks build stronger communities." We do this by providing tomorrow's leaders, our youth, with a healthy beginning, by providing more scholarships than any organization besides the U.S. Government.

The Florida State Elks support its two charities, the Florida Elks Youth Camp and the Florida Children's Therapy Services. The Florida Elks Youth Camp is located on 385 acres of rolling hills, forests, lakes and open space in Marion County, Florida. The camp has a ratio of one counselor and one counselor in training for every seven campers and is accredited by The American Camping Association as a safe camping environment for children.

The Florida Elks Children Therapy Services provides physical therapy and occupational therapy to Florida children with 20 mobile units consisting of both Physical and Occupation Therapists. They treat children all over the state of Florida who do not have easy access to therapy as a result of financial consideration without regard to the ability to pay for such services.
