

Michael Fugler Interviews Inland Private Capital for InterlinkedTV at REISA, San Diego

San Diego, CA, May 18, 2014, Michael Fugler interviewed Inland Private Capital Corporation for InterlinkedTV at REISA in San Diego, California.

Inland granted an exclusive interview for InterlinkedTV during the REISA Spring Symposium at San Diego.

Interlinked President & CEO, Delray Wannemacher, announced that InterlinkedTV was chosen as Media Sponsor for the REISA Spring Symposium at San Diego. As a Media Sponsor, InterlinkedTV conducted exclusive interviews at the REISA Spring Symposium.

Delray Wannemacher stated, "We were honored to be a media partner of REISA at this amazing event. Don't miss these exclusive interviews available only on InterlinkedTV."

Keith Lampi, Chief Operating Officer of Inland Private Capital Corporation, and Brian Conlon, CEO of Inland Securities Corporation granted an exclusive interview for Media Sponsor, InterlinkedTV, during the recent REISA Spring Symposium at San Diego.

Mr. Conlon stated, "Michael did a great job during our interview to explain to the viewers, using his well refined, seamless interview process, the difference between Inland Securities Corporation and Inland Private Capital Corporation, which was one of our main objectives. It helps that Michael is an expert in financial services to know what questions to ask when."

The interview was conducted by host Michael Fugler who stated, "Inland has been around for decades and is very diversified in its real estate offerings, having top management for the interview gave viewers a deep inside peak at the diversification of its sectors and the quality of its management."

Inland Real Estate is an investment company founded by 4 school teachers in 1968. Over 45 years old at this point, they now have over 1,500 associates that focus on adding value to real estate through asset management, property management and financing. Inland does this in 6 different sectors of real estate: office, industrial, multifamily, retail, student housing and hotels. Over the last 45 years Inland has acquired, managed or disposed of over 40 billion dollars worth of real estate.
