

Michael Fugler of ASG Securities Joins the St. Bernard Project at FSX Conference, New Orleans

New Orleans, LA / PRBuzz / August 17, 2011 - - Michael Fugler of ASG Securities joins the St. Bernard Project at the Financial Services Exchange, Inc. (FSX) Investment Banking conference at The Ritz Carlton in New Orleans, Louisiana, to help rebuild homes destroyed in Hurricane Katrina.

Mr. Fugler will join Mary Stasko, Judy Ensweller, FSX Executive Director, and a group of FSX members who are volunteering to help the families who own homes that they cannot afford to rebuild.

Mr. Fugler stated, "As a native of Louisiana, I look forward to helping the families who own homes but cannot afford to rebuild. A lot of families had no insurance or were underinsured due to a ruling that St. Bernard Parish was not in a flood zone prior to Katrina. Some insurance companies dropped policies without notifying policy owners and these families have no way to rebuild their homes. The day will certainly be an emotional but extremely rewarding experience."

Mr. Fugler continued, "The experience is called the St. Bernard Project. Check it out at www.stbernardproject.org. We met and worked with the most wonderful group of volunteers, all of whom were attendees at the FSX conference. The joy, enthusiasm and hard work put in by this group of people was amazing and inspiring. I ask all of you to consider getting your family, friends, organization, church, networks to take a look at this most worthwhile project and consider getting involved. One day can make a huge impact!"
