

Pacific Fuel Cell Corp. Retains US EURO Securities Inc. for Investment Banking Services

By Christopher Smith

OCTOBER 15, 2004

Pacific Fuel Cell Corp., a nanotechnology-based fuel cell company, and US EURO Securities Inc., a private, global investment bank with headquarters in Los Angeles, announced the signing of an engagement letter under which US EURO Securities will provide investment banking services to Pacific Fuel Cell Corp.

Michael Roy Fugler, chairman of US EURO Securities Inc., stated: "Nanomaterials or nanostuctured materials provide us an opportunity for a fundamental revolution in fuel cell technology. We hope that by funding Pacific Fuel Cell, we will help them to realize their goal of cheaper and better commercial products and enable them to participate as a major player in the evolution of fuel cell technology."

George Suzuki, president of Pacific Fuel Cell Corp., stated: "We are pleased to be associated with US EURO Securities as we move to the next level of anticipated growth of our company. In particular, US EURO Securities' overseas strength is expected to further PFCE's goal of becoming a truly international organization."

US EURO Securities Inc. is a private, global investment bank with headquarters in Los Angeles, providing global financial solutions. The firm has a team of experienced financial professionals throughout the United States, Europe and Asia and is focused on providing a wide range of financial advisory services, including equity and debt financing, mergers and acquisitions as well as domestic and international business development for a select clientele of international institutions, domestic and international corporations and high net worth individuals.

Pacific Fuel Cell Corp., a publicly traded company (OTCBB:PFCE), is committed to producing fuel cells with increased cost-effectiveness and higher performance in the portable and micro fuel cell market, utilizing nanotechnology.