Dallas, TX, March 16, 2014 -- Michael Fugler, Chairman, EURO Financial Network, Inc., interviewed 25+ emerging growth companies at FSXinterlinked in Dallas, Texas, February, 2014.

Mr. Fugler stated, "This was a milestone and special conference because of the announcement by my good friend, Delray Wannemacher, CEO Of Interlinked and Interlinked TV, that his companies had merged with FSX and the physical conference would hence forth be known as FSXInterlinked!"

Mr. Fugler further stated, "You may wonder why the merger was so important; it was because the merger was a huge step in Delray's overall strategy of bringing together the virtual and physical world of networking and investing, so Interlinked TV communicates virtually with the public, FSXInterlinked is the physical conference for networking and Interlinked is the private platform for investing."

"Stay tuned!!"

FSX Interlinked

FSXinterlinked is a premier investment conference organization founded in 1983. Four times per year we meet in a different major U.S city where we connect emerging growth companies with a nationwide network of financial investment professionals. We bring the CEOs and Executive Officers of the Presenting Companies together with the principals and key decision makers of the Broker/Dealers and other financial firms. These are the people who can make the decisions, sign the contracts and get the deals done.

FSXinterlinked provides a forum where presenting company CEOs seeking capital and/or market support can come to showcase their companies in a dedicated environment that is conducive to networking and building financial relationships. Instead of traveling around the country to meet with these people individually, meet them all in one place...at an FSXinterlinked CONNECT FOR SUCCESS conference!
