Founded in 2005, Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank PLC was established with one primary objective: to create a law firm capable of representing clients with sophisticated needs at a cost level that our less affluent clients can afford. To accomplish the Firm's objective, Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank PLC has built a team of lawyers where partners come from top firms in the region and associates are from the nation's top law schools. As a Firm, KPVC&F commits to provide their clients service based on two tenets. First, they believe the best attorney-client relationship is founded on trust and accountability. Second, they view their clients as partners whose own success is vital to the success of the Firm.

REISA is a national trade association of decision makers that influence over 20,000 professionals who offer and manage alternative investments.
